The Names of the Saviour Today's Gospel tells us of two names of Our Lord: 'Jesus' and 'Emmanuel'.

Jesus This primary name of the Saviour was told both to Mary and to Joseph by their angelic visitors: 'You are to conceive and bear a son, and you must name him Jesus.' (Lk 1:31) 'She will give birth to a son and you must name him Jesus, because he is the one who is to save his people from their sins.' (Mt 1:21) (The name is then actually conferred at his circumcision, on the eighth day from his birth: 'They gave him the name Jesus, the name the angel had given him before his conception.' (Lk 2:21))

The name comes from the Hebrew meaning 'God saves' (which explains the reason of the name that the angel tells Joseph: he 'is to save his people from their sins'). As with many names (e.g. Mary - Maria - Marie; John - Giovanni - Juan), there are legitimate different versions in various languages. Thus in English we say Jesus, but in Italian, Gesù. These come via the Latin Iesu from the Greek of the New Testament: Ιησούς (Ιησοῦς). (In Greek capitals this is ΙΗΣΟΥΣ, the first three letters of which are made into the symbol for Our Lord, IHS.)

The actual original Hebrew, used by Jesus himself in Aramaic dialect, would be Yeshua' (ישׁוע'). (The stress is on the second syllable, 'shu'; there is at the end a guttural consonant ' , named ayin (ע) in Hebrew, a sound from the throat unfamiliar in English.) This name was not uncommon in the time of Jesus. It was a shortened form of the older Yehoshua' (the name, for example, of the successor of Moses, which we put in English as Joshua). This can be broken down into Yeho - shua'. Yeho is a form of Yahu, that derives from the most sacred divine name, which God revealed to Moses at the burning bush – YHWH – Yahweh – I Am Who Am –

He Who Is. (Ex 3:14) And shua' relates to 'save'. So the ultimate meaning of Yehoshua', Yeshua' and Jesus is: 'God [Yahweh, He Who Is] saves' or 'Yahweh is salvation'.

So the name Jesus (1) contains the most proper name of God himself, insofar as human beings can speak it: YHWH – most suitable to the One who truly was God-made-man; and (2) contains the mission of Jesus: salvation. In his action and his very identity, Jesus saves from sin (and from its consequences, death and hell) all those united to him.

Emmanuel This name, coming from the prophecy that Matthew takes from Isaiah, was not of course used for Jesus during his earthly life. But like the name Jesus, it tells us the same deepest identity. Matthew writes: 'Now all this took place to fulfil the words spoken by the Lord through the prophet: "The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son and they will call him Emmanuel", a name which means "God-is-with-us".' (Mt 1:22-23)

He quotes here Isaiah 7:14 (using the Greek translation of the original Hebrew called the Septuagint, made by Jewish scholars in the 3rd / 2nd centuries BC). In Hebrew, immanu (עַמְּנָנוּ) means 'with us' and El (אֱלֹהִים) means 'God' or 'god': Immanu-el. (The initial 'i' sound became 'e' in Greek transliteration: Emmanouēl.) El is a more ancient name of God than YHWH, appearing in words like 'Israel'. Thus God tells Moses, 'To Abraham and Isaac and Jacob I appeared as El Shaddai.' (Ex 6:2; cf. Gen 17:1; 35:11)

God could not be more 'with us' than by actually becoming one of us: sharing our humanity, then even our suffering and death, so that we might share in his divinity. And Matthew's Gospel concludes with the One who is 'God-with-us' reassuring us that he is 'Emmanuel' forever: 'I Am-with-you always; yes, to the end of time.' (Mt 28:20)

Telegram of the Holy Father, Monday 15 December, to the Archbishop of Sydney, Most Rev Anthony Fisher

Deeply saddened to learn of the horrific attack that occurred in Sydney, which claimed the lives of members of the Jewish community gathered for a Hanukkah celebration, His Holiness Pope Leo XIV offers the assurance of his spiritual closeness to all those affected by this senseless act of violence. With renewed hope that those tempted to violence will undergo conversion and seek the path of peace and solidarity, His Holiness prays for the healing of those still recovering as well as consolation for those grieving the loss of a loved one. Commending the dead to the loving mercy of almighty God, the Holy Father invokes the divine blessings of peace and strength upon all Australians.

Words of Pope Leo XIV during Audience, 15 December

'I wish to entrust to the Lord the victims of yesterday's terrorist attack on the Jewish community in Sydney. Enough with these forms of anti-Semitic violence! We must eliminate hatred from our hearts.'

Statement of the Archbishop of Melbourne, 15 December Response to the events at Bondi Beach

Yesterday, as a quiet summer evening was settling, and as the festival lights of Hanukkah were being lit, darkness enveloped our Jewish brothers and sisters in a targeted attack against them. Our nation is in shock, and a community of our nation has been devastated, by the violence that unfolded on Bondi Beach.

Today, we begin to name clearly the horror of what has occurred. This evil act of violence against our Jewish friends has deeply wounded our common humanity. What transpired was an overwhelming act of desecration. That this took place as families and friends gathered at Bondi to celebrate Hanukkah - a festival proclaiming light in the face of darkness - deepens the pain and outrage of this moment.

I stand in unequivocal solidarity with the Jewish community in Australia, and reach out in sorrow, friendship, and resolve. I call upon all people of good will to do the same. In the face of calculated hatred and terrifying violence, we must reject knowing silence and calculated indifference. We must choose to be present, to pray, and to stand in solidarity.

Together, we pray in grief and lament for those who have lost their lives. We pray for strength and healing for those who have been injured and traumatised. We pray for all who carry the heavy burden of dread in the wake of this violence. We hear their cry, we see their fear, we share in their grief. We entrust our Jewish friends - our neighbours and fellow Australians - to the embrace of God.

Yet even in devastating darkness, there is light. Hanukkah proclaims that light cannot be extinguished by darkness. Our faith, too, calls us to be a light for the world - to resist despair, to name evil truthfully, and to move together from desolation toward hope.

The Archbishop invited 'all people of goodwill' to come to St Patrick's Cathedral the following day, Tuesday 16 December, for a Mass of Reconciliation - 'a moment of prayer, remembrance, and recommitment - a public act of turning again toward peace and the sanctity of life', with 'a particular invitation to our Jewish sisters and brothers, as a sign of shared sorrow and determined hope'. At our Parish Mass on Tuesday at Mentone, we united in spirit with this Mass of Reconciliation. Archbishop Comensoli concluded:

May the God of all humanity draw us from this darkness onto a path of light. May we be strengthened to stand together, to reject hatred in all its forms, and to bear witness - through prayer and action - to a future shaped not by fear, but by solidarity, justice, and peace.

ACYF – Australian Catholic Youth Festival – Pilgrim Experience

Some of our pilgrims (L to R):

Pilgrims processing with WYD Cross from St. Patrick's Cathedral

Adoration: 6000 people kneeling in adoration before the Lord

Sr Mary Grace SV (Sisters of Life) - 'God is 100% for you. You showed up. God wants in on every part of your life. He cares for you ... You were never meant to live your life alone. You were called to the great adventure of love.'

From 30 November to 2 December, 13 young people of our Partnered Parishes journeyed together as pilgrims to the Australian Catholic Youth Festival in Melbourne.

This is one pilgrim's summary of her experience:

ACYF was an incredible and uplifting experience. It was a wonderful opportunity for us to share the same faith with over 6000 young people from all across Australia.

One of the most powerful moments for me was the time of adoration when the entire auditorium fell into silence. We could feel the presence of Jesus and the Holy Spirit moving among us. In that quiet moment, we reflected deeply on our lives and were reminded that although pain exists, with Jesus we can walk forward with courage and peace.

We also developed meaningful new friendships with other young people from our own parish. Sharing this journey together made me feel supported, confident, and part of something much bigger.

Throughout the festival, the music, praise and worship, and the variety of talks and conferences from bishops, nuns, and young speakers strengthened our understanding of Catholicism. Hearing relatable stories from other young people about their own struggles made a deep impact. Some spoke about facing illnesses, others shared their challenges with study pressure, comparison, and learning how to forgive. These honest stories helped us feel personally encouraged and reminded us that Jesus works in every part of our lives no matter how difficult.

ACYF was truly a spark in our journey and inspired us to keep growing in faith and to carry the joy of the experience into our everyday lives and communities.

Dollwia D'Souza – ACYF Pilgrim

All our pilgrims and the ACYF Team at the parish thank the Parishes for their generous contributions, spiritual and financial, that made ACYF possible for our pilgrims.
